Soldiers of Christ, arise,
And put your armor on;
Strong in the strength which God supplies
Through His eternal Son.

Strong in the Lord of Hosts,
And in His mighty power;
Who in the strength of Jesus trusts
Is more than conqueror.

Stand then in His great might,
With all His strength endued;
And take to arm you for the fight,
The panoply of God.

From strength to strength go on,
Wrestle, and fight, and pray;
Tread all the powers of darkness down,
And win the well-fought day.

That having all things done,
And all your conflicts past,
Ye may o'ercome, through Christ alone,
And stand complete at last.

To God, the Father, Son,
And Spirit ever blest,
The One in Three, the Three in One,
Be endless praise addressed.

Abide with me: fast falls the eventide;
The darkness deepens; Lord, with me abide:
When other helpers fail, and comforts flee,
Help of the helpless, oh, abide with me.

Swift to its close ebbs out life's little day; Earth's joys grow dim, its glories pass away, Change and decay in all around I see; O Thou Who changest not, abide with me.

I need Thy presence every passing hour,
What but Thy grace can foil the tempter's power?
Who, like Thyself, my guide and stay can be?
Through cloud and sunshine, Lord, abide with me.

I fear no foe with Thee at hand to bless:
Ills have no weight and tears no bitterness;
Where is death's sting? where, grave, thy victory?
I triumph still, if Thou abide with me.

Hold Thou Thy cross before my closing eyes: Shine through the gloom, and point me to the skies: Heaven's morning breaks, and earth's vain shadows flee: In life, in death, O Lord, abide with me.

Jerusalem the golden!
With milk and honey blest;
Beneath thy contemplation
Sink heart and voice opprest.
I know not, O I know not,
What joys await us there!
What radiancy of glory!
What bliss beyond compare!

They stand, those halls of Sion,
All jubilant with song,
And bright with many an angel,
And all the martyr throng.
The Prince is ever in them,
The daylight is serene;
The pastures of the blessed

The pastures of the blessed Are decked in glorious sheen.

There is the throne of David;
And there, from care released,
The shout of them that triumph,
The song of them that feast.
And they, who with their Leader,
Have conquered in the fight,
For ever and for ever
Are clad in robes of white.

O sweet and blessed country,
The home of God's elect!
O sweet and blessed country,
That eager hearts expect!
Jesus, in mercy bring us
To that dear land of rest!
Who art, with God the Father,
And Spirit, ever blest.

Jerusalem the golden!
With milk and honey blest;
Beneath thy contemplation
Sink heart and voice opprest.
I know not, O I know not,
What joys await us there!
What radiancy of glory!
What bliss beyond compare!

There is the throne of David;
And there, from care released,
The shout of them that triumph,
The song of them that feast.
And they, who with their Leader,
Have conquered in the fight,
For ever and for ever
Are clad in robes of white.

They stand, those halls of Sion, All jubilant with song, And bright with many an angel, And all the martyr throng.
The Prince is ever in them, The daylight is serene;
The pastures of the blessed Are decked in glorious sheen.

O sweet and blessed country,
The home of God's elect!
O sweet and blessed country,
That eager hearts expect!
Jesus, in mercy bring us
To that dear land of rest!
Who art, with God the Father,
And Spirit, ever blest.

From the depths of our contrition,
Let us now while humbly kneeling
Raise our voice to great Jehovah,
Who to dust gives life and feeling,
Who with one breath made the heavens,
At whose bidding this earth would vanish.
Who to nought can bring all kingdoms,
Who to dust can change a king,
Look upon us, we implore Thee,
And our hearts to Thee we'll bring.

Thou who makest faith more steadfast, Thou who watchest while we're sleeping, Thou in whom all hope is centered, All our fates are in Thy keeping. Thou Jehovah, guide of Israel, Look upon us, our false pride banish, Peace eternal Thou wilt give us, Light supernal shed around. He, who weeping seeks Thy pardon, May at last in heaven be found.

Here by Babylon's wave,
Tho' heathen hands have bound us,
Tho' afar from our land
The pains of death surround us;
Zion! thy mem'ry still,
In our hearts we are keeping,
And still we turn to thee,
Our eyes all sad with weeping.

Thro' our harps that we hung on the trees, Goes the low wind, wearily moaning. Mingles the sad note of the breeze, With voice as sad of sigh and groaning. When mad with wine our foe rejoices, Then unto their altars they throng, Loud for mirth then they call—A song!—A song of Zion sing, lift up your voices!

Gounod

Lord, tho' the victor command— In captivity sad and lowly, How shall we raise Thy song so holy, That we sung in our Fatherland? Jerusalem, if we forget thee, Let our hands remember not their pow'r! Jerusalem, if we forget thee, Let our tongues be silent from that hour!

Woe unto thee, Babylon, mighty city,
For the day of thy fall is nigh!
For thee no hope, for thee no pity,
Tho' loud thy wail riseth on high?
Then shalt thou, desolate, forsaken,
Be torn from thy fanes and thy thrones,
In that day shall thy babes be taken,
Taken and dashed against the stones!
Then unto thee, O Babylon, the mighty, be woe!

Who is this that cometh from Edom? Who is this with dyed garments from Bozrah? This that is glorious in his apparel, traveling in the greatness of his strength.

Wherefore art thou red in thine apparel, and thy garments like him that treadeth in the wine-fat?

I have trodden the wine-press alone; and of the people there was none with me. I will tread them in mine anger, and trample them in my fury; for the day of vengeance is in mine heart, and the year of my redeemed is come.

And when as Judge Thou drawest nigh,

Hosanna in the highest!

Who is this that cometh from Edom? Who is this with dyed garments from Bozrah? This that is glorious in his apparel, traveling in the greatness of his strength.

I that speak in righteousness, mighty to save.

Wherefore art thou red in thine apparel, and thy garments like him that treadeth in the wine-fat?

I have trodden the wine-press alone; and of the people there was none with me. I will tread them in mine anger, and trample them in my fury; for the day of vengeance is in mine heart, and the year of my redeemed is come.

> And when as Judge Thou drawest nigh, The secrets of all hearts to try, When sinners meet their awful doom, And saints attain their heavenly home, O let us not for evil past Be driven from Thy face at last, But with the blessed evermore Behold and love Thee and adore. Amen.

O Holy night! the stars are brightly shining; It is the night of our dear Saviour's birth! Long lay the world in sin and error pining, Till He appeared, and the soul felt its worth. A thrill of hope the weary world rejoices, For yonder breaks a new and glorious morn! Fall on your knees! Oh, hear the Angel voices! O night divine! O night when Christ was born!

Truly He taught us to love one another; His law is Love, and His Gospel is Peace; Chains shall He break, for the slave is our brother, And in His name all oppression shall cease. Sweet hymn of joy in grateful chorus raise we, Let all within us praise His holy name, Christ is the Lord! then ever, ever praise we His power and glory evermore proclaim!

Offertory Anthem

It came upon the midnight clear. That glorious song of old, From angels bending near the earth

To touch their harps of gold: Peace on the earth, good-will to men. From heaven's all-gracious King; The world in solemn stillness lay To hear the angels sing.

Still through the cloven skies they come, For lo, the days are hastening on, With peaceful wings unfurled; And still their heavenly music floats O'er all the weary world: Above its sad and lonely plains They bend on hovering wing,

And ever o'er its Fabel sounds The blessed angels sing.

Parker

O ve, beneath life's crushing load, Whose forms are bending low, Who toil along the climbing way With painful steps and slow! Look now! for glad and golden hours Come swiftly on the wing; Oh, rest beside the weary road, And hear the angels sing.

By prophets seen of old, When with the ever-circling years, Shall come the time foretold. When the new heaven and earth shall own The Prince of Peace their King, And the whole world send back the song Which now the angels sing.

Shall we not yield Him, in costly devotion,
Odors of Edom and offerings divine,
Gems of the mountain, and pearls of the ocean,
Myrrh from the forest, or gold from the mine?

Offertory Anthem

Onward, Christian soldiers,
Marching as to war,
With the cross of Jesus
Going on before!
Christ the royal Master
Leads against the foe;
Forward into battle,
See, His banners go.
Onward, Christian soldiers,
Marching as to war,
With the cross of Jesus
Going on before!

At the sign of triumph Satan's host doth flee; On, then, Christian soldiers, On to victory! Macdougall

Hell's foundations quiver
At the shout of praise;
Brothers, lift your voices,
Loud your anthems raise!
Onward, etc.

Onward, then, ye people!
Join our happy throng!
Blend with ours your voices
In the triumph song!
Glory, laud, and honor,
Unto Christ the King;
This through countless ages
Men and angels sing.
Onward, etc.

Weary of earth, and laden with my sin, I look at heaven and long to enter in:
But there no evil thing may find a home:
And yet I hear a voice that bids me
"Come."

So vile I am, how dare I hope to stand In the pure glory of that holy land? Before the whiteness of that throne appear?

Yet there are hands stretched out to draw me near.

The while I fain would tread the heavenly way. Evil is ever with me day by day:

Yet on mine ears the gracious tidings fall, "Repent, confess, thou shaft be loosed from all."

It is the voice of Jesus that I hear; His are the hands stretched out to draw me near.

And His the blood that can for all atone, And set me faultless there before the throne.

Nought can I bring, dear Lord, for all I owe, Yet let my full heart what it can bestow, Like Mary's gift, let my devotion prove, Forgiven greatly, how I greatly love.

Weary of earth, and laden with my sin. I look at heaven and long to enter in: But there no evil thing may find a home: And yet I hear a voice that bids me

So vile I am, how dare I hope to stand In the pure glory of that holy land? Before the whiteness of that throne appear?

Yet there are hands stretched out to draw me near.

The while I fain would tread the heaven-

Evil is ever with me day by day; Yet on mine ears the gracious tidings fall. "Repent, confess, thou shaft be loosed from all "

It is the voice of Jesus that I hear: His are the hands stretched out to draw

And His the blood that can for all atone. And set me faultless there before the throne

Nought can I bring, dear Lord, for all I owe, Yet let my full heart what it can bestow, Like Mary's gift, let my devotion prove, Forgiven greatly, how I greatly love.

Oh, for a closer walk with God, A calm and heavenly frame. A light to shine upon the road That leads me to the Lamb.

What peaceful hours I once enjoyed! Return, O holy Dove, return, How sweet their memory still! But they have left an aching void The world can never fill.

The dearest idel I have known, Whate'er that idol be. Help me to tear it from Thy throne, And worship only Thee.

Sweet messenger of rest: I hate the sins that made Thee mourn. And drove Thee from my breast.

So shall my walk be close with God. Calm and serene my frame: So purer light shall mark the road That leads me to the Lamb.

There is a green hill far away. Without a city wall. Where the dear Lord was crucified. Who died to save us all.

He died that we might be forgiv'n. He died to make us good, That we might go at last to heav'n, Saved by His precious blood.

We may not know, we cannot tell, What pains He had to bear. But we believe it was for us He hung and suffered there.

There was no other good enough To pay the price of sin. He only could unlock the gate Of heaven, and let us in.

Oh, dearly, dearly has He loved! And we must love Him too, And trust in His redeeming blood, And try His works to do.

All nations sing and chant His praise, Now let your voices join with ours and anthems raise! Hosanna! Glory to God! Blessed is He who comes bringing salvation!

His voice is heard, and nations at the sound Have now regained that freedom sought in vain; Humanity shall everywhere abound, For light to all the world is given again.

The Saviour King goes forth to die!
Goes forth in all His glory bright!
And angels from the realms on high,
Look down to see the wondrous sight.
On, on to Calvary's fateful hill,
Reviled by those He came to bless;
But in His suffering bearing still
The majesty of Righteousness!
The Saviour King goes forth to die!

With weariness and anguish sore,
On, on to death the Saviour goes!
The Roman helmets flash before,
Behind Him shout exultant foes.
The Son of God goes forth to die!
To yield in pain His mortal breath,
To rob the grave of Victory,
And take, for aye, the sting from death!
The Saviour King goes forth to die!

Open your hearts to the Saviour, Make room for the crucified Lord, Tears and the anguish of midnight Are lost in the splendor of day. Lead, kindly Light, amid the encircling gloom,
Lead Thou me on!
The night is dark, and I am far from home,
Lead Thou me on!
Keep Thou my feet! I do not ask to see
The distant scene; one step enough for me.

I was not ever thus, nor prayed that Thou
Shouldst lead me on;
I loved to choose and see my path; but now
Lead Thou me on!
I loved the garish day; and, spite of fears,
Pride ruled my will; remember not past years.
So long Thy power has blest me, sure it still

My Jesus I love Thee, I know Thou art mine, For Thee all the follies of sin I resign.
My gracious Redeemer, my Saviour art Thou, If ever I loved Thee, my Jesus, 'tis now.

I love Thee because Thou hast first loved me, And purchased my pardon on Calvary's tree; I love Thee for wearing the thorns on Thy brow; If ever I loved Thee, my Jesus, 'tis now.

In mansions of glory and endless delight,
I'll ever adore Thee in heaven so bright;
I'll sing with the glittering crown on my brow:
If ever I loved Thee, my Jesus, 'tis now.

Open the gates of the Temple, One grand hallelujah be heard. Open your hearts to the Saviour, Make room for the crucified Lord. Tears and the anguish of midnight Are lost in the splendor of day. They who in sorrow once doubted Are swelling a glad refrain: "I know that my Redeemer liveth,"

In death's dark vale I fear no ill With Thee, dear Lord, beside me;

The King of love my Shepherd is, Whose goodness faileth never; I nothing lack if I am His, And He is mine forever.

Where streams of living water flow My ransomed soul He leadeth, And, where the verdant pastures grow, With food celestial feedeth.

Perverse and foolish oft I strayed, But yet in love He sought me. And on His shoulder gently laid, And home, rejoicing, brought me.

Thy cross before to guide me. Thou spread'st a table in my sight; Thy unction grace bestoweth; And oh, what transport of delight

Thy rod and staff my comfort still,

And so through all the length of days, Thy goodness faileth never: Good Shepherd, may I sing Thy praise Within Thy house forever. AMEN.

Still looking to Jesus, O may I be found. When Jordan's dark waters encompass me round; That here, as in heaven, there need be no night. I see Him still nearer, Whom always I see.

Then shall I know the full beauty and grace Of Jesus, my Lord, when I stand face to face; I know that His presence my safe-guard will be, Shall know how His love went before me each day, For "Why are ye troubled?" He saith unto me. And wondered that ever my eyes turned away.

To love some one more dearly every day,
To help a wandering child to find his way,
To ponder o'er a noble thought, and pray,
And smile when evening falls,
This is my task.

To follow truth as blind men long for light, To do my best from dawn of day till night, To keep my heart fit for His holy sight, And answer when He calls,

This is my task.

And then my Savior by and by to meet, When faith hath made her task on earth complete, And lay my homage at the Master's feet, Within the jasper walls, This is my task.

My spirit homeward turns.
And fain would thither flee;
My heart, O Sion, droops and yearns,
When I remember thee.

To thee, to thee I press,
A dark and toilsome road;
When shall I pass the wilderness,
And reach the saints' abode?

God of my life, be near:
On Thee my hopes I cast:
Oh, guide me through the desert here,
And bring me home at last! Amen.

Soldiers of Christ, arise
And put your armor on;
Strong in the strength which God supplies
Through His eternal Son.

Strong in the Lord of Hosts,
And in His mighty power;
Who in the strength of Jesus trusts
Is more than conqueror.

Stand then in His great might, With all His strength endued; And take to arm you for the fight, The panoply of God. From strength to strength go on,
Wrestle, and fight, and pray;
Tread all the powers of darkness down,
And win the well-fought day.

That having all things done,
And all your conflicts past,
Ye may o'ercome, through Christ alone,
And stand complete at last.

To God, the Father, Son,
And Spirit ever blest,
The One in Three, the Three in One,
Be endless praise addressed.

Jesus, the very thought of Thee, With sweetness fills the breast; But sweeter far Thy face to see, And in Thy presence rest. O hope of every contrite heart,
O joy of all the meek,
To those who fall, how kind Thou art!
How good to those who seek!

No voice can sing, no heart can frame,
Nor can the memory find,
A sweeter sound than Jesus' Name,
The Saviour of mankind.

But what to those who find? Ah, this
Nor tongue, nor pen can show;
The love of Jesus, what it is,
None but His loved ones know.

Offertory Anthem

Anon.

Jesus, Saviour, pilot me Over life's tempestuous sea; Unknown waves before me roll, Hiding rock and treach'rous shoal; Chart and compass come from Thee, Jesus, Saviour, pilot me.

Bradford-Campbell

As a mother stills her child, Thou canst hush the ocean wild; Boistrous waves obey Thy will, When Thou say'st to them, "Be still!" Wondrous Sov'reign of the sea, Jesus, Saviour, pilot me.

When at last I near the shore, And the fearful breakers roar 'Twixt me and the peaceful rest, Then, while leaning on Thy breast, May I hear Thee say to me, "Fear not, I will pilot thee!"

Doth not wisdom cry, and understanding put forth her voice?
Unto you, O men I call; and my voice is to the sons of man.

Hear; for I will speak of excellent things; and the opening of my lips shall be right things.

For wisdom is better than rubies.

I love them that love me, and those that seek me early shall find me. Counsel is mine, and sound wisdom. I am understanding. I have strength. Amen.

Oftertory Anthem

Pughe-Evans

Lead, kindly Light, amid the encircling gloom,
Lead Thou me on!
The night is dark, and I am far from home,
Lead Thou me on!
Keep Thou my feet! I do not ask to see
The distant scene; one step enough for me.
I was not ever thus, nor prayed that Thou

Shouldst lead me on;
I loved to choose and see my path; but now
Lead Thou me on!
I loved the garish day; and, spite of fears,
Pride ruled my will; remember not past years.
So long Thy power has blest me, sure it still

Will lead me on!
O'er moor and fen, o'er crag and torrent, till
The night is gone;
And with the morn those angel faces smile,
Which I have loved long since, and lost awhile.

Jesus, the very thought of Thee, With sweetness fills the breast; But sweeter far Thy face to see, And in Thy presence rest.

No voice can sing, no heart can frame,
Nor can the memory find,
A sweeter sound than Jesus' Name.

The Saviour of mankind.

O hope of every contrite heart,
O joy of all the meek,
To those who fall, how kind Thou art!
How good to those who seek!

But what to those who find? Ah, this
Nor tongue, nor pen can show;
The love of Jesus, what it is,
None but His loved ones know.

Jesus, our only joy be Thou,
As Thou our prize wilt be;
In Thee be all our glory now,
And through eternity.

Thus saith the Lord, your Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel: I am the Lord, your King. Behold, I will send My messenger and he shall prepare the way before Me; and the Lord, whom ye seek, shall suddenly come to His temple, saith the Lord of Hosts. The time is fulfilled, the Kingdom of God is at hand; prepare to meet thy God, O Israel.

Lo, He comes with clouds descending, Once for favored mortals slain; Thousand, thousand Saints attending Swell the triumph of His train:

Allelulia!
Christ returns on earth to reign.

Offertory Anthem

Hark! hark, my soul! Angelic songs are swelling

O'er earth's green fields and ocean's wave-beat shore;

How sweet the truth those blessed strains are telling

Of that new life when sin shall be no more!

Angels of Jesus,
Angels of light,
Singing to welcome
The pilgrims of the night.

Onward we go, for still we hear them singing,

"Come, weary souls, for Jesus bids you come;"

And through the dark, its echoes sweetly ringing,

The music of the Gospel leads us home.

Far, far away, like bells at evening pealing,

Shelly

The voice of Jesus sounds o'er land and sea,

And laden souls by thousands meekly stealing,

Kind Shepherd, turn their weary steps to Thee.

Rest comes at length, though life be long and dreary,

The day must dawn, and darksome night be past;
Faith's journeys end in welcome to the weary,

And heaven the heart's true home

And heaven, the heart's true home, will come at last.

Angels, sing on! your faithful watches keeping;

Sing us sweet fragments of the songs above;

Till morning's joy shall end the night of weeping,

And life's long shadows break in cloudless love.

To you this day is born He Who will guide you
Through paths of peace to living waters clear.

Kings from a far land, draw near and behold Him, Led by the beam whose warning bade ye come; Your crown cast down, with robe royal enfold Him; Your King descends to earth from brighter home.

O sing to God your hymns of gladness, Ye loving hearts your tribute pay; Your Lord is born this happy day.

Then pierce the sky with songs of gladness, Disperse the shades of gloom and sadness; Your Lord is born this happy day.

Mark how the Mother lulls to slumber Her new-born Babe with tenderest love And guards her treasure from above.

O blessed Child, with her who bore Thee, We, too, will kneel in faith before Thee. O God Incarnate, we adore Thee!

O Word of God, for us incarnate, By faith we hear Thine angels sing Their hymns of praise to Thee, their King.

We join with them in adoration, We pour to Thee our supplication, That Thou wouldst grant us, Lord, salvation.

O eyes that are weary and hearts that are sore, Look off unto Jesus, now sorrow no more; The light of His countenance shineth so bright, That here, as in heaven, there need be no night.

While looking to Jesus my heart cannot fear, I tremble no more when I see Jesus near, I know that His presence my safeguard will be, For "Why are ye troubled?" He saith unto me.

Still looking to Jesus, O may I be found, When Jordan's dark waters encompass me 'round; They bear me away, in His presence to be—I see Him still nearer, Whom always I see.

Then shall I know the full beauty and grace of Jesus, my Lord, when I stand face to face; Shall know how His love went before me each day. And wondered that ever my eyes turned away.

Noble Ridge of the mountain wave,

Fierce was the wild billow,
Dark was the night,
Oars labor'd heavily,
Foam glimmer'd white.
Trembled the mariners,
Peril was nigh;
Then saith the God of God,
"Peace! It is I!"

Lower thy crest,
Wail of Euroclydon,
Be thou at rest;
Sorrow can never be,
Darkness must fly,
When saith the Light of Light,
"Peace! It is I!"

Jesus, deliverer,
Come Thou to me,
Soothe Thou my voyaging
Over life's sea;
Thou, when the storm of Death
Roars sweeping by,
Whisper, O Truth of Truth,
"Peace! It is I!"

In death's dark vale I fear no ill With Thee, dear Lord, beside mer Thy rod and staff my comfort still Thy cross before to guide me.

Where streams of living water flow My ransomed soul He leadeth, And, where the verdant pastures grow, And oh, what transport of delight With food celestial feedeth.

Thou spread'st a table in my sight: Thy unction grace bestoweth; From Thy pure chalice floweth!

Perverse and foolish oft I straved. But yet in love He sought me, And on His shoulder gently laid, And home, rejoicing, brought me. And so through all the length of days.
Thy goodness faileth never; Good Shepherd, may I sing Thy praise Within Thy house forever. Amen

Brocessional Comm 408

We may not know, we cannot tell, What pains He had to bear, But we believe it was for us He hung and suffered there. He died that we might be forgiv'n,
He died to make us good,
That we might go at last to heav'n,
Saved by His precious blood.

There was no other good enough
To pay the price of sin,
He only could unlock the gate
Of heaven, and let us in.

Oh, dearly, dearly has He loved! And we must love Him too, And trust in His redeeming blood, And try His works to do.

More love to Thee, O Christ,
More love to Thee!
Hear Thou the prayer I make
On bended knee;
This is my earnest plea,
More love, O Christ, to Thee,
My love to Thee!

Once earthly joy I craved,
Sought peace and rest:
Now Thee alone I seek;
Give what is best;
This all my prayer shall be,
More love, O Christ, to Thee!
More love to Thee!

Then shall my latest breath
Whisper Thy praise;
This be the parting cry
My heart shall raise,
This still its prayer shall be,
More love, O Christ, to Thee,
More love to Thee!

Open the gates of the Temple, Strew palms on the Conqueror's way, Open your hearts, O ye people, That Jesus may enter to-day. Hark from the sick and the dying, Forgetting their couches of pain, Voices, glad voices, with rapture Are swelling a glad r-frain. Open the gates of the Temple, One grand hallelujah be heard, Open your hearts to the Saviour, Make room for the crucified Lord. Tears and the anguish of midnight Are lost in the splendor of day, They who in sorrow once doubted Are swelling a glad refrain: "I know that my Redeemer liveth."

Offertory Anthem

Coleridge-Taylor

Now late on the Sabbath day, as it began to dawn toward the first day of the week, came Mary Magdalene and the other Mary to see the sepulchre.

And, behold, there was a great earthquake; for an angel of the Lord descended from heaven, and came and rolled away the stone, and sat upon it.

His appearance was as lightning, and his raiment white as snow:

And for fear of him the watchers did quake, and became as dead men.

And the angel answered and said unto the women: Fear not ye; for I know that ye seek Jesus, which hath been crucified.

He is not here; for He is risen, even as He said. Come, see the place where the Lord lay.

And go quickly, and tell His disciples, He is risen from the ead.

And they departed quickly from the tomb with fear and great joy, and ran to bring His disciples word.

And behold, Jesus met them, saying, All hail.

Go ye, therefore, and make disciples of all the nations, baptizing them into the Name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Ghost:

Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I commanded you: and, lo, I am with you alway, unto the end of the world. Amen.

The King of love my Shepherd is, Whose goodness faileth never: I nothing lack if I am His, And He is mine forever.

Where streams of living water flow My ransomed soul He leadeth. And, where the verdant pastures grow, And oh, what transport of delight With food celestial feedeth.

Perverse and foolish oft I strayed. But yet in love He sought me, And on His shoulder gently laid. And home, rejoicing, brought me. In death's dark vale I fear no ill With Thee, dear Lord, beside me; Thy rod and staff my comfort still, Thy cross before to guide me.

Thou spread'st a table in my sight; Thy unction grace bestoweth; From Thy pure chalice floweth!

And so through all the length of days, Thy goodness faileth never: Good Shepherd, may I sing Thy praise Within Thy house forever. Amen.

Hold Thou my hand; the darkness falleth,
The shadows gather fast, the day is gone.
Lord, on Thee now my spirit calleth,
O Light of God, lead Thou, lead Thou me on!
O could I feel that Thou wert near me,
My soul would cease complaint and be at rest;
But ah! 'tis vain; no voice to cheer me
Rings through the gloom to calm my troubled breast!

O God, is my cry unavailing? My hope, must it perish and die? Shine forth! O shine forth through the darkness! Wilt Thou not hear me? Lord, wilt Thou not hear my cry?

Hold Thou my hand; unless Thou lead me, My feet will wander far and go astray. Thou, O Lord, knowest how I need Thee, Be Thou my Guide along this dreary way. Is this the path to promised glory? My only road to reach the fields of light? Do countless dangers lie before me Ere dawns the vision holy on my sight? O God, I will hope in Thy mercy! Ah! Thou wilt not cast me away! Shine forth! O shine forth through the darkness! The light is breaking! Thou turnest my night into day!

The Lord is my Shepherd: I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: He leadeth me beside the still waters; He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in The paths of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of The shadow of death, I will fear no evil; For Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence Of mine enemies; Thou anointest my head with oil; My cup runneth over. Surely goodness and Mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; And I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

I do not ask that Thou wouldst take from me
Aught of its load.

I do not ask that flowers should always spring Beneath my feet;

I know too well the poison and the sting Of things too sweet.

I do not ask my cross to understand,
My way to see;
Better in darkness just to feel Thy hand,

Like quiet night.

Jerusalem, my happy home, Name ever dear to me, When shall my labors have an end, Thy joys when shall I see?

When shall these eyes thy heaven-built walls And pearly gates behold? Thy bulwarks, with salvation strong, And streets of shining gold?

Apostles, martyrs, prophets, there Around my Saviour stand; And soon my friends in Christ below Will join the glorious band.

Oftertory Anthem,

Sheller

Christian, the morn breaks sweetly o'er thee,
And all the midnight shadows flee;
Tinged are the distant skies with glory

Tinged are the distant skies with glory,
A beacon light hung out for thee.

Arise! arise, the light breaks o'er thee,
Thy name is graven on the throne,
Thy home is in the world of glory,
Where thy Redeemer reigns alone.

Courage! cheer up, the day breaks o'er thee,
Bright as the summer's noon tide ray;
The star-gemmed crowns and realms of glory.
Invite thy happy soul away.

Away! away, leave all for glory,
Thy name is graven on the throne,
Thy home is in that world of glory,
Where thy Redeemer reigns alone.

Offertory Anthem

To love some one more dearly every day,
To help a wandering child to find his way,
To ponder o'er a noble thought, and pray,
And smile when evening falls,
This is my task.

To follow truth as blind men long for light, To do my best from dawn of day till night, To keep my heart fit for His holy sight, And answer when He calls, This is my task.

And then my Savior by and by to meet,
When faith hath made her task on earth
complete,
And lay my homage at the Master's feet,
Within the jasper walls,
This is my task.

I was glad when they said unto me, we will go into the house of the Lord. Our feet shall stand in thy gates, O Jerusalem. O pray for the peace of Jerusalem. They shall prosper that love thee. Peace be within thy walls and plenteousness within thy palaces. For my brethren and companions' sakes I will wish thee prosperity. Yea, because of the house of the Lord our God I will seek to do thee good.

Glorious things of thee are spoken, Zion, City of our God; He Whose word cannot be broken Formed thee for His own abode. On the Rock of Ages founded, What can shake thy sure repose? With salvation's walls surrounded, Thou mayest smile at all thy foes.

Offeriory Anthem.

Godfrey

There is no sorrow, Lord, too light,
To bring in prayer to Thee;
There is no anxious care too slight
To wake Thy sympathy.

Thou, Who hast trod the thorny road, Wilt share each small distress;
The love which bore the greater load Will not refuse the less.

There is no secret sigh we breathe
But meets Thine ear divine;
And every cross grows light beneath
The shadow, Lord, of Thine.
Life's ills without, sin's strife within,
The heart would overflow
But for that love which died for sin,
That love which wept for woe.

Onward, Christian soldiers,
Marching as to war,
With the cross of Jesus
Going on before!
Christ the royal Master
Leads against the foe;
Forward into battle,
See, His banners go.
Onward, Christian soldiers,
Marching as to war,
With the cross of Jesus
Going on before!

At the sign of triumph
Satan's host doth flee;
On, then, Christian soldiers,
On to victory!

Macdougall

Hell's foundations quiver
At the shout of praise;
Brothers, lift your voices,
Loud your anthems raise!
Onward, etc.

Onward, then, ye people!
Join our happy throng!
Blend with ours your voices
In the triumph song!
Glory, laud, and honor,
Unto Christ the King;
This through countless ages
Men and angels sing.
Onward, etc.

Let the wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts, and let him return unto the Lord, and He will have mercy upon him; and to our God, for He will abundantly pardon.

For the mountains shall depart, and the hills be removed; but my kindness shall not depart from thee, nor the covenant of my peace be removed.

Offertory Anthem,

Say, watchman, what of the night?
Do the dews of the morning fall?
Have the orient skies a border of light,
Like the fringe of a funeral pall?

The night is fast waning on high, And soon shall the darkness flee: And the morn shall spread o'er the blushing sky, And bright shall its glories be.

But, watchman, what of the night, When sorrow and pain are mine? And the pleasures of life so sweet and bright No longer around me shine? Sullivan
That night of sorrow thy soul

May surely prepare to meet;
But away shall the clouds of thy heaviness roll,
And the morning of joy be sweet.

But, watchman, what of the night?
When the arrow of death is sped?
And the grave, which no glimmering star can light,
Shall be my sleeping bed?

That night is near, and the cheerless tomb

Shall keep thy body in store,
Till the morn of eternity rise on the gloom
And night shall be no more.

Gounod

Here by Babylon's wave, Tho' heathen hands have bound us, Tho' afar from our land The pains of death surround us; Zion! thy mem'ry still, In our hearts we are keeping, And still we turn to thee, Our eyes all sad with weeping.

Thro' our harps that we hung on the trees,
Goes the low wind, wearily moaning,
Mingles the sad note of the breeze,
With voice as sad of sigh and groaning.
When mad with wine our foe rejoices,
Then unto their altars they throng,
Loud for mirth then they call—A song!—
A song of Zion sing, lift up your voices!

Lord, tho' the victor command— In captivity sad and lowly, How shall we raise Thy song so holy, That we sung in our Fatherland? Jerusalem, if we forget thee, Let our hands remember not their pow'r! Jerusalem, if we forget thee, Let our tongues be silent from that hour!

Woe unto thee, Babylon, mighty city, For the day of thy fall is nigh! For thee no hope, for thee no pity, Tho' loud thy wail riseth on high? Then shalt thou, desolate, forsaken, Be torn from thy fanes and thy thrones, In that day shall thy babes be taken, Taken and dashed against the stones! Then unto thee, O Babylon, the mighty, be woe!

Hark! hark, my soul! Angelic songs are swelling

wave-beat shore;

How sweet the truth those blessed strains are telling Of that new life when sin shall be no more!

Angels of Jesus, Angels of light, Singing to welcome The pilgrims of the night.

Onward we go, for still we hear them singing.

"Come, weary souls, for Jesus bids you come;' And through the dark, its echoes sweetly ringing, The music of the Gospel leads us home.

Far, far away, like bells at evening

Sheller

The voice of Jesus sounds o'er land and sea. O'er earth's green fields and ocean's And laden souls by thousands meekly stealing, Kind Shepherd, turn their weary steps to Thee.

Rest comes at length, though life be long and dreary, The day must dawn, and darksome

night be past; Faith's journeys end in welcome to the weary, And heaven, the heart's true home.

will come at last.

Angels, sing on! your faithful watches keeping;

Sing us sweet fragments of the songs above:

Till morning's joy shall end the night of weeping,

And life's long shadows break in cloudless love.

From "Christus"

When Jesus our Lord was born in Bethlehem, in the land of Judea. behold, from the East to the city of Jerusalem there came wise men, and said: Say, where is He born, the King of Judea? For we have seen His star and are come to adore Him. There shall a star from Jacob come forth and a sceptre from Israel rise up; and dash in pieces princes and nations.

As bright the star of morning gleams, So Jesus sheddeth glorious beams Of light and consolation! Thy Word, O Lord, radiance darting. Truth imparting, gives salvation; Thine be praise and adoration!

Behold, there came wise men from the East to Jerusalem to see where was born the Saviour, Christ.

His star we have seen, and to worship Him are we come. Where is He?

In Bethlehem, the land of Judea, is born He who is to become Governor, that shall rule the people of Israel; the One who is Wonderful, Counsellor, the mighty God, the Prince of Peace.

Mary, the Virgin Mother, watches tenderly the helpless Babe, the Holy Child now born, Jesus, the Son of God.

Gifts most costly, rich and rare, are placed with lowly reverence at the Infant Saviour's feet with fervent prayer and deep devotion.

Lovely appear over the mountains
The feet of them that preach and bring good news of peace.
Ye mountains, ye perpetual hills, bow ye down.
Over the barren wastes shall flowers now have possession.
Dark shades of ancient days, full of hate and oppression,
In the brightness of joy fade away and are gone.
In this age, truly blest more than ages preceding,
Shall the corn never fail from the plentiful ground;
Under the shining sky shall the lambs gaily bound:
Void of fear, undisturbed, safely shall they be feeding.
Then the timorous birds,—e'en the turtle-dove meek,—
Shall not fear any more the hawk's merciless beak.

Jerusalem the golden!
With milk and honey blest;
Beneath thy contemplation
Sink heart and voice opprest.
I know not, oh. I know not,
What joys await us there!
What radiancy of glory!
What bliss beyond compare!

They stand, those halls of Sion,
All jubilant with song,
And bright with many an angel,
And all the martyr throng.
The Prince is ever in them,
The daylight is serene;
The pastures of the blessed
Are decked in glorious sheen.

There is the throne of David;
And there, from care released,
The shout of them that triumph,
The song of them that feast.
And they, who with their Leader,
Have conquered in the fight,
Forever and forever
Are clad in robes of white.

O sweet and blessed country,
The home of God's elect!
O sweet and blessed country,
That eager hearts expect!
Jesus, in mercy bring us
To that dear land of rest!
Who art, with God the Father,
And Spirit, ever blest.

Offertory Anthem

Kinder

Jerusalem the golden!
With milk and honey blest;
Beneath thy contemplation
Sink heart and voice opprest.
I know not, oh, I know not,
What joys await us there!
What radiancy of glory!
What bliss beyond compare!

The shout of them that triumph,
The song of them that feast.
And they, who with their Leader,
Have conquered in the fight,
Forever and forever
Are clad in robes of white.

There is the throne of David; And there, from care released.

They stand, those halls of Sion,
All jubilant with song,
And bright with many an angel,
And all the martyr throng.
The Prince is ever in them,
The daylight is serene;
The pastures of the blessed
Are decked in glorious sheen.

O sweet and blessed country,
The home of God's elect!
O sweet and blessed country,
That eager hearts expect!
Jesus, in mercy bring us
To that dear land of rest!
Who art, with God the Father,
And Spirit, ever blest.

Barnby

Abide with me; fast falls the eventide;
The darkness deepens; Lord, with me abide;
When other helpers fail and comforts face

When other helpers fail, and comforts flee, Help the helpless, oh, abide with me.

Swift to its close ebbs out life's little day; Earth's joys grow dim, its glories pass away,

Change and decay in all around I see; 0 Thou Who changest not, abide with me. I need Thy presence every passing hour, What but Thy grace can foil the tempter's power? Who, like Thyself, my guide and stay can be? Through cloud and sunshine, Lord, abide with me.

I fear no foe with Thee at hand to bless;
Ills have no weight and tears no bitterness;
Where is death's sting? where, grave, thy victory?

I triumph still, if Thou abide with me.

Hold Thou Thy cross before my closing eyes;
Shine through the gloom, and point me to the skies;
Heaven's morning breaks, and earth's vain shadows flee;
In life, in death, O Lord, abide with me.

Gounod

Lovely appear over the mountains
The feet of them that preach and bring good news of peace.
Ye mountains, ye perpetual hills, bow ye down.
Over the barren wastes shall flowers now have possession.
Dark shades of ancient days, full of hate and oppression,
In the brightness of joy fade away and are gone.
In this age, truly blest more than ages preceding,
Shall the corn never fail from the plentiful ground;
Under the shining sky shall the lambs gaily bound:
Void of fear, undisturbed, safely shall they be feeding.
Then the timorous birds,—e'en the turtle-dove meek,—
Shall not fear any more the hawk's merciless beak.

Offertory Anthem	Salter
I lay my sins on Jesus, The spotless Lamb of God; He bears them all, and frees us From the accursed load.	I rest my soul on Jesus, This weary soul of mine; His right hand me embraces, I on His breast recline.
I bring my guilt to Jesus, To wash my crimson stains White in His blood most precious, Till not a spot remains.	I long to be like Jesus, Meek, loving, lowly, mild; I long to be like Jesus, The Father's holy Child;
I lay my griefs on Jesus, My burdens and my cares; He from them all releases; He all my sorrows shares.	I long to be with Jesus, Amid the heavenly throng; To sing with saints His praises, To learn the angels' song.

There is a green hill far away,
Without a city wall,
Where the dear Lord was crucified,
Who died to save us all.

He died that we might be forgiv'n,
He died to make us good,
That we might go at last to heav'n,
Saved by His precious blood.

We may not know, we cannot tell, What pains He had to bear, But we believe it was for us He hung and suffered there. There was no other good enough
To pay the price of sin,
He only could unlock the gate
Of heaven, and let us in.

Oh, dearly, dearly has He loved! And we must love Him too, And trust in His redeeming blood, And try His works to do.

Not in Thy Majesty, Robed in Heaven's supremest splendour; But in weakness and surrender,

Thou hangest here.

Who can be like Thee? Pilate high in Zion dwelling, Rome with arms the world compell-Proud tho' they be?

Thou art sublime: Far more awful in Thy weakness, More than kingly in Thy meekness, Thou Son of God.

Glory and honour: Let the world divide and take them; Crown its monarchs and unmake But Thou wilt reign.

Here in abasement; Crownless, poor, disrobed, and bleed-There, in glory interceding,

Thou art the King!

Saviour, like a Shepherd lead us, Much we need Thy tender care. In Thy pleasant pastures feed us, For our use Thy folds prepare.

Thou hast promised to receive us. Poor and sinful though we be. Thou hast mercy to relieve us, Grace to cleanse and power to free Blessed Jesus, Blessed Jesus. Thou hast bought us, Thine we are.

Blessed Jesus, Blessed Jesus, Let us early turn to Thee.

Early let us seek Thy favor. Early let us learn Thy will, Do Thou, Lord, our only Saviour, With Thy love our bosoms fill.

Offertory Anthem

The King of love my Shepherd is, Whose goodness faileth never: I nothing lack if I am His, And He is mine forever.

Where streams of living water flow My ransomed soul He leadeth, And, where the verdant pastures grow, And oh, what transport of delight With food celestial feedeth.

Perverse and foolish oft I strayed. But yet in love He sought me, And on His shoulder gently laid, And home, rejoicing, brought me. In death's dark vale I fear no ill With Thee, dear Lord, beside me; Thy rod and staff my comfort still, Thy cross before to guide me.

Thou spread'st a table in my sight: Thy unction grace bestoweth; From Thy pure chalice floweth!

And so through all the length of days, Thy goodness faileth never; Good Shepherd, may I sing Thy praise Within Thy house forever. Amen.

My Jesus I love Thee, I know Thou art mine, For Thee all the follies of sin I resign. My gracious Redeemer, my Saviour art Thou, If ever I loved Thee, my Jesus, 'tis now.

I love Thee because Thou hast first loved me, And purchased my pardon on Calvary's tree; I love Thee for wearing the thorns on Thy brow; If ever I loved Thee, my Jesus, 'tis now.

In mansions of glory and endless delight, I'll ever adore Thee in heaven so bright; I'll sing with the glittering crown on my brow; If ever I loved Thee, my Jesus, 'tis now.

Jesus, the very thought of Thee, With sweetness fills the breast; But sweeter far Thy face to see, And in Thy presence rest.

No voice can sing, no heart can frame. Nor can the memory find, A sweeter sound than Jesus' Name, The Saviour of mankind.

Kinder O hope of every contrite heart,

O joy of all the meek, To those who fall, how kind Thou art! How good to those who seek!

But what to those who find? Ah, this Nor tongue, nor pen can show; The love of Jesus, what it is, None but His loved ones know.

Hosanna in the highest!

Who is this that cometh from Edom? Who is this with dyed garments from Bozrah? This that is glorious in his apparel, traveling in the greatness of his strength.

I that speak in righteousness, mighty to save.

Wherefore art thou red in thine apparel, and thy garments like him that treadeth in the wine-fat?

I have trodden the wine-press alone; and of the people there was none with me. I will tread them in mine anger, and trample them in my fury; for the day of vengeance is in mine heart, and the year of my redeemed

And when as Judge Thou drawest nigh, The secrets of all hearts to try, When sinners meet their awful doom, And saints attain their heavenly home, O let us not for evil past Be driven from Thy face at last, But with the blessed evermore Behold and love Thee and adore. Amen.

Tark! hark, my soul! Angelic songs Goth are swelling O'er earth's green fields and ocean's wave-beat shore; How sweet the truth those blessed strains are telling Of that new life when sin shall be no more!

> Angels of Jesus, Angels of light, Singing to welcome The pilgrims of the night.

Doward we go, for still we hear them

"Come, weary souls, for Jesus bids you come;"

And through the dark, its echoes sweetly ringing,

Shellev

Far, far away, like bells at evening pealing. The voice of Jesus sounds o'er land

And laden souls by thousands meekly stealing.

Kind Shepherd, turn their weary steps to Thee.

Rest comes at length, though life be long and dreary, The day must dawn, and darksome

night be past; Faith's journeys end in welcome to the weary,

And heaven, the heart's true home. will come at last.

Angels, sing on! your faithful watches keeping;

Sing us sweet fragments of the songs above:

Till morning's joy shall end the night of weeping, And life's long shadows break in cloudless love.

Hail, thou ever-blessed morn!

Sing and rejoice, O daughter of Zion: for, lo, I come, and I will dwell in the midst of thee, saith the Lord thy God.

For unto you is born this day, in the city of David, a Saviour, which is Christ the Lord.

Sing, O daughter of Zion; shout, O daughter of Jerusalem; behold, thy King cometh unto thee.

Herein was the love of God manifested in us, that God hath sent His only begotten Son into the world, that we might live through Him. Herein is love, not that we loved God, but that He loved us.

God is love; and he that abideth in love abideth in God, and God abideth in him.

Love came down at Christmas. Love all lovely, love divine; Love was born at Christmas, Stars and angels gave the sign. Alleluia! Amen.

Lead, kindly Light, amid the encircling gloom,
Lead Thou me on!
The night is dark, and I am far from home,
Lead Thou me on!
Keep Thou my feet! I do not ask to see
The distant scene; one step enough for me.

I was not ever thus, nor prayed that Thou

Shouldst lead me on;
I loved to choose and see my path; but now
Lead Thou me on!
I loved the garish day; and, spite of fears,
Pride ruled my will; remember not past years.

So long Thy power has blest me, sure it still
Will lead me on!
O'er moor and fen, o'er crag and torrent, till
The night is gone;
And with the morn those angel faces smile,
Which I have loved long since, and lost awhile.

O Thou Who changest not, abide with me.

I need Thy presence every passing hour, What but Thy grace can foil the tempter's Who, like Thyself, my guide and stay can

Through cloud and sunshine, Lord, abide with me.

I fear no foe with Thee at hand to bless; Ills have no weight and tears no bitterness; Where is death's sting? where, grave, thy victory ? I triumph still, if Thou abide with me.

Hold Thou Thy cross before my closing Shine through the gloom, and point me to the skies; Heaven's morning breaks, and earth's vain shadows flee; In life, in death, O Lord, abide with me.

Oh, for a closer walk with God,
A calm and heavenly frame,
A light to shine upon the road
That leads me to the Lamb.

The dearest idol I have known,
Whate'er that idol be,
Help me to tear it from Thy throne,
And worship only Thee.

What peaceful hours I once enjoyed! How sweet their memory still! But they have left an aching void The world can never fill. Return, O holy Dove, return,
Sweet messenger of rest;
I hate the sins that made Thee mourn,
And drove Thee from my breast.

So shall my walk be close with God, Calm and serene my frame; So purer light shall mark the road That leads me to the Lamb.

Offertory Anthem

Kinder He died that we might be forgiv'n.

There is a green hill far away, Without a city wall, Where the dear Lord was crucified, Who died to save us all.

He died to make us good, That we might go at last to heav'n. Saved by His precious blood.

We may not know, we cannot tell, What pains He had to bear, But we believe it was for us He hung and suffered there.

There was no other good enough To pay the price of sin, He only could unlock the gate Of heaven, and let us in.

Oh, dearly, dearly has He loved! And we must love Him too. And trust in His redeeming blood, And try His works to do.

Into the woods my Master went Clean forspent; Into the woods my Master came, Forspent with love and shame.

But the olives they were not blind to Him,

The little gray leaves were kind to Him,

The thorntree had a mind to Him, When into the woods He came.

Out of the woods my Master went, And He was well content; Out of the woods my Master came, Content with death and shame.

When death and shame would woo Him last, From under the trees they drew Him last,

'Twas on a tree they slew Him last, When out of the woods He came.'

Offertory Anthem

There is a green hill far away,
Without a city wall,
Where the dear Lord was crucified,
Who died to save us all.

We may not know, we cannot tell, What pains He had to bear, But we believe it was for us He hung and suffered there.

He died that we might be forgiv'n, He died to make us good, That we might go at last to heav'n, Saved by His precious blood.

There was no other good enough
To pay the price of sin,
He only could unlock the gate
Of heaven, and let us in.

Oh, dearly, dearly has He loved!
And we must love Him, too,
And trust in His redeeming blood,
And try His works to do,

Fling wide the gates, for the Saviour waits To tread in His royal way; He has come from above, in His power and love, To die on this Passion Day.

His cross is a sign of love divine, His crown is the thorn-wreath of woe; He bears His load on the sorrowful road, And bends 'neath the burden low.

How sweet is the grace of His sacred face, And lovely beyond compare; Tho' weary and worn with the merciless scorn Of a world He has come to spare.

The burden of wrong that earth bears along, Past evil, and evil to be-All sins of man since the world began, They are laid, dear Lord, on Thee.

Bread of heaven, on Thee we feed, For Thy flesh is food indeed:
Ever may our souls be fed
With this true and living bread;
Day by day with strength supplied,
Through the life of Him Who died.

Vine of heaven, Thy blood supplies This blest cup of sacrifice: Lord, Thy wounds our healing give, To Thy cross we look and live; Jesus, may we ever be Grafted, rooted, built in Thee.

Sheller In death's dark vale I fear no ill With Thee, dear Lord, beside me: Thy rod and staff my comfort still. Thy cross before to guide me.

Where streams of living water flow My ransomed soul He leadeth, And, where the verdant pastures grow, And oh, what transport of delight With food celestial feedeth.

The King of love my Shepherd is,

Whose goodness faileth never;

Thou spread'st a table in my sight: Thy unction grace bestoweth: From Thy pure chalice floweth!

Perverse and foolish oft I strayed. But yet in love He sought me. And on His shoulder gently laid. And home, rejoicing, brought me. And so through all the length of days Thy goodness faileth never: Good Shepherd, may I sing Thy praise Within Thy house forever. Amen.

O eyes that are weary and hearts that are sore, Look off unto Jesus, now sorrow no more; The light of His countenance shineth so bright, That here, as in heaven, there need be no night.

While looking to Jesus my heart cannot fear, I tremble no more when I see Jesus near, I know that His presence my safeguard will be, For "Why are ye troubled?" He saith unto me.

Still looking to Jesus, O may I be found, When Jordan's dark waters encompass me 'round; They bear me away, in His presence to be—I see Him still nearer, Whom always I see.

Then shall I know the full beauty and grace Of Jesus, my Lord, when I stand face to face; Shall know how His love went before me each day, And wondered that ever my eyes turned away.

More love to Thee, O Christ, More love to Thee! Hear Thou the prayer I make On bended knee: This is my earnest plea, More love, O Christ, to Thee, More love to Thee!

Once earthly joy I craved. Sought peace and rest: Now Thee alone I seek: Give what is best; This all my prayer shall be, More love, O Christ, to Thee! More love to Thee!

Then shall my latest breath Whisper Thy praise: This be the parting cry My heart shall raise. This still its prayer shall be, More love, O Christ, to Thee, More love to Thee!

Offertory Anthem

Abide with me; fast falls the eventide; The darkness deepens; Lord, with me when other helpers fail, and comforts flee, Help the helpless, oh, abide with me.

Swift to its close ebbs out life's little day; Earth's joys grow dim, its glories pass away, Change and decay in all around I see; Thou Who changest not, abide with me.

Barnby

I need Thy presence every passing hour, What but Thy grace can foil the tempter's power?
Who, like Thyself, my guide and stay can Through cloud and sunshine, Lord, abide with me.

I fear no foe with Thee at hand to bless; Ills have no weight and tears no bitterness; Where is death's sting? where, grave, thy I triumph still, if Thou abide with me.

Hold Thou Thy cross before my closing Shine through the gloom, and point me to the skies; Heaven's morning breaks, and earth's vain shadows fice; In life, in death, O Lord, abide with me.

Offertory Anthem

Here by Babylon's wave. Tho' heathen hands have bound us, Tho' afar from our land The pains of death surround us: Zion! thy mem'ry still, In our hearts we are keeping. And still we turn to thee, Our eyes all sad with weeping.

Thro' our harps that we hung on the Goes the low wind, wearily moaning, Mingles the sad note of the breeze, With voice as sad of sigh and groaning. When mad with wine our foe rejoices, Then unto their altars they throng, Loud for mirth then they call—A song !-A song of Zion sing, lift up your voices!

Gounod

Lord, tho' the victor command-In captivity sad and lowly, In captivity sad and lowly, How shall we raise Thy song so holy, That we sung in our Fatherland? Jerusalem, if we forget thee, Let our hands remember not their pow'r! Jerusalem, if we forget thee, Let our tongues be silent from that hour!

Woe unto thee, Babylon, mighty city, For the day of thy fall is nigh! For the day of thy fair is high: For thee no hope, for thee no pity, Tho' loud thy wail riseth on high? Then shalt thou, desolate, forsaken, Be torn from thy fanes and thy thrones, In that day shall thy babes be taken, Taken and dashed against the stones! Then unto thee, O Babylon, the mighty,

In the little village of Bethlehem There lay a child one day, And the sky was bright with a holy O'er the place where Tesus lav.

'Twas a humble birthplace, but, oh how much God gave to us that day! From the manger bed what a path has What a perfect, holy way!

Alleluia! Oh, how the angels sang! Alleluia! How it rang! And the sky was bright with a holy light: 'Twas the birthday of a King.

Send out Thy light and Thy truth; let them lead me, and let them bring me to Thy holy hill.

O God, then will I go unto Thy altar, and on the harp will we praise Thee, O Lord, Our God.

Why, O soul, are thou sorrowful, and why cast down within me? Still trust the loving kindness of the God of thy strength, and my tongue yet shall praise Him who hath pleaded my cause.

Lord, our God! Thou will save thine annointed; Thou wilt hear us from heaven. Though in chariots some put their trust, our trust is in Thee. They are brought down and fallen; but the Lord is our helper; we shall not be afraid.

Brightest and best of the sons of the morning,
Dawn on our darkness, and lend us Thine aid;
Star of the East, the horizon adorning,
Guide where the infant Redeemer is laid.

Cold on His cradle the dew drops are shining, Low lies His head with the beasts of the stall; Angels adore Him in slumber reclining; Maker and Monarch and Saviour of all.

Shall we not yield Him, in costly devotion,
Odors of Edom and offerings divine,
Gems of the mountain, and pearls of the ocean,
Myrrh from the forest, and gold from the mine?

Vainly we offer each ample oblation,
Vainly with gold would His favor secure;
Richer by far is the heart's adoration,
Dearer to God are the prayers of the poor. Amen.

Offertary Anthem

Knapp

Open the gates of the Temple, Strew palms on the Conqueror's way, Open your hearts, O ye people, That Jesus may enter today. Hark from the sick and the dying, Forgetting their couches of pain, Voices, glad voices, with rapture Are swelling a glad refrain. Open the gates of the Temple, One grand hallelujah be heard, Open your hearts to the Saviour, Make room for the crucified Lord. Tears and the anguish of midnight Are lost in the splendor of day, They who in sorrow once doubted Are swelling a glad refrain:

"I know that my Redeemer liveth."

Canst thou, my heart, lift up thy voice and sing:

"I know that my Redeemer liveth,
And because He lives, I, too, shall live."

Offertory Anthem

Wondrous is the story,
How the Saviour came
From His Throne in glory
To the Cross of shame;
Came from sin to save me
And to make me free,
His dear life He gave me
On dark Calvary.

O Thou gentle Jesus,
Loving Lord divine,
Thou whose dying frees us,
Make me truly Thine.
Let Thy Spirit royal
All my being fill;
Keep me ever loyal
To Thy holy will.

Let me never wander,
Let me never stray,
Till to mansions yonder
Thou shalt lead the way.
Then in endless glory
I shall find a place,
E'er to sing the story
Of redeeming grace.

The Saviour King goes forth to die!
Goes forth in all His glory bright!
And angels from the realms on high,
Look down to see the wondrous sight,
On, on to Calvary's fateful hill,
Reviled by those He came to bless;
But in His suffering bearing still
The majesty of Righteousness!

With weariness and anguish sore,
On, on to death the Saviour goes!
The Roman helmets flash before,
Behind Him shout exultant foes,
The Son of God goes forth to die!
To yield in pain His mortal breath,
To rob the grave of Victory,
And take, for aye, the sting from death!

played by
RALPH KINDER, assisted by DOROTHY E. PIERCE, Soprano.

Holy art Thou, Lord God Almighty, Who wert, and art, and art to come.

Glory and majesty in heaven are Thine. Earth, lowly bending, swells the full harmony—blessing and glory to the Lamb for evermore. For worthy art Thou. Let all the nations and kindreds and peoples give thanks to Thee for evermore.

Custance

Like as the hart desireth the water-brooks, so longeth my soul after Thee, O God. My soul is athirst for God, yea, even for the living God. O, when shall I come to appear before the presence of God?

Jerusalem, my happy home, Name ever dear to me, When shall my labors have an end, Thy joys when shall I see?

Apostles, martyrs, prophets, there Around my Saviour stand; And soon my friends in Christ below Will join the glorious band.

When shall these eyes thy heaven-built walls Jerusalem, my happy home, And pearly gates behold? Thy bulwarks, with salvation strong, And streets of shining gold?

My soul still pants for thee; Then shall my labors have an end, Then I thy joys shall see.

Jesus, the very thought of Thee, With sweetness fills the breast; But sweeter far Thy face to see, And in Thy presence rest.

No voice can sing, no heart can frame,

Nor can the memory find, A sweeter sound than Jesus' Name, The Saviour of mankind. O hope of every contrite heart,
O joy of all the meek,
To those who fall, how kind Thou art!
How good to those who seek!

But what to those who find? Ah, this

Ring out! sweet bells of Peace! Ring out! the Lord has sent release! The world is safe and right is won! Roma

The vict'ry's gained, the task is done! The clouds of war at last shall cease, Ring out, sweet bells of Peace!

No more on fields red with battle

Will blood of heroes be shed;
And only birds will sing there,
A requiem to our dead.
For Right over Might has triumphed,
The world has found release;
At last! all our pray'rs are answered,
At last! there's blessed Peace!

There is a name I love to hear, Jesus, blessed Jesus. It falls like music on my ear, Jesus, blessed Jesus.

No other is so dear to me
As Jesus, Lamb of Calvary;
His precious life He gave for me,
Jesus, blessed Jesus!

There is a picture in my heart,
Jesus, blessed Jesus!
It makes the loving tear-drops start,
Jesus, blessed Jesus!

There is a sacred memory, Jesus, blessed Jesus! Of Bethlehem to Calvary, Jesus, blessed Jesus.

There is a home of love divine, Jesus, blessed Jesus! I am so glad that He is mine, Jesus, blessed Jesus!

My Jesus I love Thee, I know Thou art mine, For Thee all the follies of sin I resign.
My gracious Redeemer, my Saviour art Thou, If ever I loved Thee, my Jesus, 'tis now.

I love Thee because Thou hast first loved me, And purchased my pardon on Calvary's tree; I love Thee for wearing the thorns on Thy brow; If ever I loved Thee, my Jesus, 'tis now.

In mansions of glory and endless delight, I'll ever adore Thee in heaven so bright; I'll sing with the glittering crown on my brow; If ever I loved Thee, my Jesus, 'tis now.

Offertory Anthem

"To Bethlehem did they go, The shepherds three: To see whe'r it were so or no, Whether Christ were born to set men free."

Masters, in this hall, Hear ye news today Brought over sea. And ever you I pray. Nowell! Sing we clear! Holpen are all folks on earth, Born is God's Son so dear. Then to Bethlehem town Did the Shepherds go, And in a sorry place Heard the oxen low.

Dickinson

Therein did they see A sweet and goodly May, And a fair old man, Upon the straw she lay, And a little child On her arm had she, "Wot ye who this is?" Said the hinds to me. Ox and ass him know Kneeling on their knee: Wondrous joy had I This little Babe to see. This is Christ the Lord. Masters be ye glad! Christmas is come in And no folk should be sad.

O Christ, the living Lord of Light, Be with us as we pray tonight, Show us the sin that most besets, Help us through all life's little frets. Broaden our minds and hearts the while, O Christ, the living Lord of Light, Teach us to learn to live aright, With poverty to bravely bear, With riches to our bounties share. Whate'er our lot, however born, Save us from arrogance and scorn.

Help us through tears still, Lord, to smile!

O Christ, the living Lord of Light, When comes to us the last long night, Be by our side and guide our bark As we are journeying through the dark.

Abide with me; fast falls the eventide; The darkness deepens; Lord, with me When other helpers fail, and comforts flee,

Help the helpless, oh, abide with me. Swift to its close ebbs out life's little day;

Earth's joys grow dim, its glories pass Change and decay in all around I see;

O Thou Who changest not, abide with me.

I need Thy presence every passing hour, What but Thy grace can foil the tempter's Who, like Thyself, my guide and stay can

Through cloud and sunshine, Lord, abide with me.

I fear no foe with Thee at hand to bless; Ills have no weight and tears no bitterness; Where is death's sting? where, grave, thy victory? I triumph still, if Thou abide with me.

Hold Thou Thy cross before my closing eyes; Shine through the gloom, and point me to the skies; Heaven's morning breaks, and earth's vain shadows flee : In life, in death, O'Lord, abide with me.

If only ye will; if only ye be kind and

If only ye give of the good of life to others-As did He."

And yet again is heard a Voice-"Tried, are ye, and tempted? Sorrowladen, fearing?

The Christ, the Prince of Peace, bids fear and doubt depart! And He is ever at your side To guide you in the way of Peace.

If only ye be true; if only ve be pure in

If only ye give of the joy of life-full measured-

I've found a Friend; oh such a Friend! He loved me ere I knew Him: He drew me with the cords of love, And thus He bound me to Him. And 'round my heart still closely twine Those ties which naught can sever, For I am His, and He is mine, Forever and forever.

I've found a Friend; oh such a Friend! He bled, He died to save me: And not alone the gift of life, But His own self He gave me.

Stebbins Naught that I have my own I call,

I hold it for the Giver; My heart, my strength, my life, my all, Are His, and His forever.

I've found a Friend; oh such a Friend! All pow'r to Him is given; To guard me on my onward course, And bring me safe to heaven. The eternal glories gleam afar, To nerve my faint endeavor; So now to watch, to work, to war, And then to rest forever.

Ierusalem the golden! With milk and honey blest; Beneath thy contemplation Sink heart and voice opprest. I know not, oh, I know not, What joys await us there! What radiancy of glory! What bliss beyond compare!

They stand, those halls of Sion, All jubilant with song, And bright with many an angel, And all the martyr throng. The Prince is ever in them, The daylight is serene; The pastures of the blessed Are decked in glorious sheen. Kinder

There is the throne of David: And there, from care released, The shout of them that triumph. The song of them that feast. And they, who with their Leader. Have conquered in the fight, Forever and forever Are clad in robes of white.

O sweet and blessed country, The home of God's elect! O sweet and blessed country, That eager hearts expect! Jesus, in mercy bring us To that dear land of rest! Who art, with God the Father, And Spirit, ever blest.

Offertory Anthem

Parker

Bow down Thine ear, O Lord, and hear me; for I am poor and in misery. Preserve Thou my soul for I am holy; my God, save Thy servant that putteth his trust in Thee. Comfort the soul of Thy servant, for unto Thee, O Lord, do I lift up my soul. For Thou, Lord, art good and gracious, and of great mercy unto all them that call upon Thee.

Offertory Anthem

Kinder

There is a green hill far away,
Without a city wall,
Where the dear Lord was crucified,
Who died to save us all.

He died to make us good,
That we might go at last to heav'n,
Saved by His precious blood.

He died that we might be forgiv'n.

We may not know, we cannot tell,
What pains He had to bear,
But we believe it was for us
He hung and suffered there.

There was no other good enough
To pay the price of sin,
He only could unlock the gate
Of heaven, and let us in.

Oh, dearly, dearly has He loved! And we must love Him too, And trust in His redeeming blood, And try His works to do.

The little gray leaves were kind to Him,

The thorntree had a mind to Him, When into the woods He came.

Out of the woods my Master went, And He was well content; Out of the woods my Master came, Content with death and shame.

All nations sing and chant His praise, Now let your voices join with ours and anthems raise! Hosanna! Glory to God! Blessed is He Who comes bringing salvation!

His voice is heard, and nations at the sound Have now regained that freedom sought in vain; Humanity shall everywhere abound, For light to all the world is given again.

From out their peaceful village
Along the sunlit way,
The Prince of Peace leads onward
A pilgrim band this day.

Then lo! with shout triumphant
They hear the hillside ring
With shouts of crowds that hasten
To greet their Prophet King.
Hosanna! Hosanna!

Lord! now as we meet Thee Sing we Hosanna!

Saviour, we greet Thee, Redeemer, Lord and King!

He rides as Israel's rulers
Once rode in kingly state.
The palm leaves wave around Him,
The people throng the gate.

Offertory Anthem	Kind
Jerusalem the golden! With milk and honey blest; Beneath thy contemplation Sink heart and voice opprest. I know not, oh, I know not, What joys await us there! What radiancy of glory! What bliss beyond compare!	There is the throne of David; And there, from care released The shout of them that triumph The song of them that feast. And they, who with their Leade Have conquered in the fight, Forever and forever Are clad in robes of white.
They stand, those halls of Sion, All jubilant with song, And bright with many an angel, And all the martyr throng.	O sweet and blessed country, The home of God's elect! O sweet and blessed country, That eager hearts expect!

Offertory Anthem

A white dove flies at the dawning, An angel sings o'er the sea; "This is a wondrous morning For freedom and Liberty Lo, out from the stars of midnight, God bade all war to cease; And now for the waiting nations, At last there reigneth Peace!

Ring out! sweet bells of Peace! Ring out! the Lord has sent release! The world is safe and right is won!

The vict'ry's gained, the task is done! The clouds of war at last shall cease, Ring out, sweet bells of Peace!

Jesus, in mercy bring us

And Spirit, ever blest.

To that dear land of rest!

Who art, with God the Father.

No more on fields red with battle Will blood of heroes be shed; And only birds will sing there, A requiem to our dead. For Right over Might has triumphed, The world has found release; At last! all our pray'rs are answered, At last! there's blessed Peace!

Have Thou didst leave Thy throne and Thy kingly

When Thou camest to earth for me; But in Bethlehem's home was there found no room

For Thy holy nativity. o come to my heart, Lord Jesus! There is room in my heart for Thee. The foxes found rest, and the birds had their nest

In the shade of the forest tree;
But Thy couch was the sod, O Thou Son of God,
In the desert of Galilee.

O come to my heart, Lord Jesus! There is room in my heart for Thee.

When the heavens shall ring, and the angels sing At Thy coming to victory, Let Thy voice call me home, saying, "Yet there is room, There is room at My side for thee."

And my heart shall rejoice, Lord Jesus, When Thou comest and callest for me,

Offertory Anthem

Lovely appear over the mountains
The feet of them that preach and bring good news of peace.
Ye mountains, ye perpetual hills, bow ye down.
Over the barren wastes shall flowers now have possession.
Dark shades of ancient days, full of hate and oppression,
In the brightness of joy fade away and are gone.
In this age, truly blest more than ages preceding,
Shall the corn never fail from the plentiful ground;
Under the shining sky shall the lambs gaily bound:
Void of fear, undisturbed, safely shall they be feeding.
Then the timorous birds,—e'en the turtle-dove meek,—
Shall not fear any more the hawk's merciless beak.

Offertory Anthem

There is a green hill far away,
Without a city wall,
Where the dear Lord was crucified,
Who died to save us all.

We may not know, we cannot tell,
What pains He had to bear,
But we believe it was for us
He hung and suffered there.

He died that we might be forgother. He died to make us good, That we might go at last to hear Saved by His precious blood

There was no other good enough
To pay the price of sin,

Offertory Anthem

The Saviour King goes forth to die!

toes forth in all His glory bright!

and angels from the realms on high,

box down to see the wondrous sight,

to to Calvary's fateful hill, arried by those He came to bless;

in His suffering bearing still the majesty of Righteousness!

Maunder

With weariness and anguish sore,
On, on to death the Saviour goes!
The Roman helmets flash before,
Behind Him shout exultant foes,
The Son of God goes forth to die!
To yield in pain His mortal breath,
To rob the grave of Victory,
And take, for aye, the sting from death!

The King of love my Shepherd is, Whose goodness faileth never; nothing lack if I am His, and He is mine forever.

Where streams of living water flow My ransomed soul He leadeth, and where the verdant pastures grow, With food celestial feedeth.

Perverse and foolish oft I strayed, But yet in love He sought me, and on His shoulder gently laid, And home, rejoicing, brought me. Shelley

In death's dark vale I fear no ill
With Thee, dear Lord, beside me;
Thy rod and staff my comfort still,
Thy cross before to guide me.

Thou spread'st a table in my sight; Thy unction grace bestoweth; And oh, what transport of delight From Thy pure chalice floweth!

Thy goodness faileth never;

I know no life divided,
O Lord of Life, from Thee;
In Thee is life provided
For all mankind and me

I know no death, O Jesus, Because I live in Thee; Thy death it is which frees us From death eternally.

I fear no tribulation,
Since, whatsoe'er it be,
It makes no separation
Between my Lord and me.

Barnes

If Thou, my God and Teacher, Vouchsafe to be my own, Though poor, I shall be richer Than monarch on his throne.

If, while on earth I wander, My heart is light and blest, Ah, what shall I be yonder In perfect peace and rest.

O blessed thought in dying,
We go to meet the Lord,
Where there shall be no sighing,
A Kingdom our reward.

From that dear throng?"

No weeping yonder!
All fled away!
While here I wander
Each weary day,
And sigh as I ponder
My long, long stay.

No partings yonder!
Time and space never Again shall sunder.

Dearer and fonder,
Hands clasp for ever

None wanting yonder!

All gathered under

To which I'm drawing near.

My Lord is in the Homeland, With angels bright and fair; No sinful thing or evil Can ever enter there. The music of the ransomed
Is ringing in my ears,
And when I think of Homeland
My eyes are filled with tears

My loved ones in the Homeland Are waiting me to come, Where neither death nor sorrow Invade their holy home. O dear, dear native country! O rest and peace above!

What of the night, O watchman?

Turn to the East thine eyes,
And say is there any token

Of the dawning in the skies?

Or do the shadows linger,
Thy lips, are they sad and dumb,
With never a word of gladness
That the tarrying morn is come?

Then answer'd the patient watchman
From the mountain's lonely height,
To the waiting souls in the valley:
I can see the breaking light;
There's a glow on the far horizon
That is growing more wide and clear,

And soon shall the sun be flinging His splendours both far and near.

What of the night, O Watchman Rises to Thee our cry; Prophet divine of Naz'reth, Make to our hearts reply. Over the earth's wild warfare Comes not a time more fair Swords into plough-shares beared Peace throned ev'rywhere.

Wait, said the Heav'nly Watchman Let not thy spirit quail, Strife shall not be eternal, Harmony shall prevail; Battle clouds all shall scatter, Hatred shall be outcast. Love's ever broad'ning glory Break on the world at last!

A white dove flies at the dawning, An angel sings o'er the sea; "This is a wondrous morning For freedom and Liberty!" Lo, out from the stars of midnight, God bade all war to cease; And now for the waiting nations, At last there reigneth Peace!

Ring out! sweet bells of Peace! Ring out! the Lord has sent release! The world is safe and right is won! The vict'ry's gained, the task is done! The clouds of war at last shall case. Ring out, sweet bells of Peace!

No more on fields red with battle
Will blood of heroes be shed;
And only birds will sing there,
A requiem to our dead.
For Right over Might has triumphed.
The world has found release;
At last! all our pray'rs are answered.
At last! there's blessed Pence!

And the earth just rings with gladness, skies are blue always.

Grateful, O Lord, grateful for Thy care, Knowing Thy love enfolds me everywhere.

Thou givest strength to walk Thy way each day,

Glad for all Thy blessings and to Thee I pray, I pray!

Grateful, O Lord, to Thee, Oh, Lord

For Thy strength to live each condition of the condition

I am so grateful for Thy blessing re-For Thy love that e'er surrounds me raa tender care.

Grateful for glories of the setting when shadows falling, tell me days

For tho'ts of Thee, that lift us up high,

to the night, O watchman?
Turn to the East thine eyes,
as y is there any token
the dawning in the skies?
To the shadows linger,
the lips, are they sad and dumb,
the never a word of gladness
that the tarrying morn is come?

answer'd the patient watchman from the mountain's lonely height, the waiting souls in the valley: can see the breaking light; the sa glow on the far horizon that is growing more wide and soon shall the sun be flinging the splendours both far and near.

Thompson

What of the night, O Watchman?
Rises to Thee our cry;
Prophet divine of Naz'reth,
Make to our hearts reply;
Over the earth's wild warfare
Comes not a time more fair,
Swords into plough-shares beaten,
Peace throned ev'rywhere?

Wait, said the Heav'nly Watchman,
Let not thy spirit quail,
Strife shall not be eternal,
Harmony shall prevail;
Battle clouds all shall scatter,
Hatred shall be outcast,
Love's ever broad'ning glory
Break on the world at last!

Lovely appear over the mountains
The feet of them that preach and bring good news of peace.
Ye mountains, ye perpetual hills, bow ye down.
Over the barren wastes shall flowers now have possession.
Dark shades of ancient days, full of hate and oppression,
In the brightness of joy fade away and are gone.
In this age, truly blest more than ages preceding,
Shall the corn never fail from the plentiful ground;
Under the shining sky shall the lambs gaily bound:
Void of fear, undisturbed, safely shall they be feeding.

Offertory Anthem

O Jerusalem, look about thee toward the East, and behold the that cometh unto thee from God! Nowell! Born is the King of Israel Now is come salvation, and strength, and the kingdom of our god and the power of His Christ.

He shall be great, and shall be called the Son of the Highest; and the Lord God shall give unto Him the throne of His Father David. He shall reign over the house of Jacob forever; and of His Kingdom there shall be no end.

Then let us all with one accord, Sing praises to our Heavenly Lord, That hath made Heav'n and earth of nought, And with His Blood mankind hath bought.

Offertory Anthem

'Twas on a peaceful, starry night In Bethlehem of old, An angel came and tidings glad

To watching shepherds told; With joyful haste they sped away Ere came the early morn.

O wondrous night when Christ the Lord

In Bethlehem was born!

Led by a star wise men there can Their costly gifts to bring; In swaddling clothes and poor the They found our Heavenly King. But hallowed was His sacred had Who later wore the thorn, O wondrous night when Christ and Lord

Was in a manger born!

With glad and thankful hearts we praise
And magnify His Name,
Who, King of kings and Lord of lords,
Among the lowly came.
O Prince of Peace, we worship Thee
And bless the holy morn,
When angel choirs glad tidings bare
And Christ the Lord was born.

Brightest and best of the sons of the morning, Dawn on our darkness, and lend us Thine aid; Star of the East, the horizon adorning, Guide where the infant Redeemer is laid.

Cold on His cradle the dew drops are shining, Low lies His head with the beasts of the stall; Angels adore Him in slumber reclining; Maker and Monarch and Saviour of all.

Shall we not yield Him, in costly devotion, Odors of Edom and offerings divine, Gems of the mountain, and pearls of the ocean, Myrrh from the forest, and gold from the mine?

Vainly we offer each ample oblation, Vainly with gold would His favor secure; Richer by far is the heart's adoration, Dearer to God are the prayers of the poor. Amen.

heavenly love abiding,

No change my heart shall fear,
and safe is such confiding,
for nothing changes here.

The storm may roar without me,
wheart may low be laid;
and God is round about me,
And can I be dismayed?

Wherever He may guide me,
No want shall turn me back;
My Shepherd is beside me,
And nothing can I lack.
His wisdom ever waketh,
His sight is never dim;
He knows the way He taketh,
And I will walk with Him,

Green pastures are before me,

Saved by His precious blood.

There was no other good enough
To pay the price of sin,
He only could unlock the gate
Of heaven, and let us in.

Oh, dearly, dearly has He loved! And we must love Him too, And trust in His redeeming blood, And try His works to do.

A man is dead,
Yet is He living,
Christians, believe,
All honor giving.
Mourn ye no more,
Joyful behold
Bright seraphim
In their glory untold.

In the heavenly regions
Hear melodious legions,
Him forever they bless,
Jesus Christ they confess.
Christ, my heart thou enfoldest,
By Thy grace I see Thy face.
Hosanna! All shall raise
Hosanna, glory, praise!

Night darkly veiled all the day's glory, When on the earth closed the sad story; Now doth the sun beam bright once more, While all the world doth in wonder adore. In the midst of the angels, The angels and archangels, See the Victor on high, Resplendent in the sky.

Offertory Anthem

Ackley

There is a name I love to hear, Jesus, blessed Jesus. It falls like music on my ear, Jesus, blessed Jesus.

There is a picture in my heart, Jesus, blessed Jesus! It makes the loving tear-drops start Tesus, blessed Jesus!

No other is so dear to me As Jesus, Lamb of Calvary; His precious life He gave for me, Jesus, blessed Jesus!

There is a sacred memory, Jesus, blessed Jesus! Of Bethlehem to Calvary, Jesus, blessed Jesus.

There is a home of love divine. Tesus, blessed Jesus! I am so glad that He is mine, Jesus, blessed Jesus!

Like as a father pitieth his children, so the Lord pitieth them that fear Him. For He knoweth our frame. He remembereth that we are dust. As for man his days are as grass, as a flower of the field, so he flourisheth. For the wind passeth over it and it is gone, and the place thereof shall know it no more. But the mercy of the Lord is from everlasting to everlasting upon them that fear Him, and His righteousness unto children's children to such as keep His covenant and to those that remember His commandments to do them. #### Offertory Anthem

The King of love my Shepherd is, Whose goodness faileth never; I nothing lack if I am His, And He is mine forever.

Where streams of living water flow
My ransomed soul He leadeth,
And, where the verdant pastures grow,
With food celestial feedeth.

Perverse and foolish oft I strayed, But yet in love He sought me, And on His shoulder gently laid, And home, rejoicing, brought me. In death's dark vale I fear no m With Thee, dear Lord, beside Thy rod and staff my comfort Thy cross before to guide me

Thou spread'st a table in my state.

Lovely appear over the mountains
The feet of them that preach and bring good news of peace.
Ye mountains, ye perpetual hills, bow ye down.
Over the barren wastes shall flowers now have possession.
Dark shades of ancient days, full of hate and oppression,
In the brightness of joy fade away and are gone.
In this age, truly blest more than ages preceding,
Shall the corn never fail from the plentiful ground;
Under the shining sky shall the lambs gaily bound:
Void of fear, undisturbed, safely shall they be feeding.
Then the timorous birds,—e'en the turtle-dove meek,—

Offertory Anthem

While shepherds watched their flocks by night, All seated on the ground,

The angel of the Lord came down,
And glory shone around.

"Fear not," said he, for mighty dread Had seized their troubled mind; "Glad tidings of great joy I bring To you and all mankind.

"To you, in David's town, this day
Is born of David's line,
The Saviour, Who is Christ the Lord;
And this shall be the sign:

"The heavenly Babe you there shall find
To human view displayed,
All meanly wrapt in swathing bands

Thus spake the seraph; and forthwise Appeared a shining throng Of angels praising God, who thus Addressed their joyful song:

And in a manger laid."

"All glory be to God on high,
And to the earth be peace;
Good will henceforth from heaven to men
Begin and never cease." Amen

Hymns 315, 470.

Offertory Anthem

The Lord is my light and my salvation; whom shall I fear? The Lord is the strength of my life; of whom then shall I be afraid?

When the wicked, even mine enemies and my foes, came upon me to eat up my flesh, they stumbled and fell.

Though a host of men be laid against me, yet shall not my heart be afraid; and though there rose up war against me, yet will I put my trust in Him.

Hearken unto my voice, O Lord, when I cry unto Thee; have mercy upon me and hear me.

Thou hast been my succor, leave me not, neither forsake me, O God of my salvation.

O tarry thou the Lord's leisure, be strong and He shall comfort thine heart.

Laugran Liddle

How lovely are Thy dwellings, O Lord of Hosts!

My soul longeth, yea, fainteth for the courts of the Lord; my heart and my flesh cry out for the living God.

Yea, the sparrow hath found her a house, and the swallow a nest, where she may lay her young, even Thine altars, O Lord of Hosts, my King and my God.

O Lord God of Hosts, hear my prayer. I would rather be a doorkeeper in the house of my God than to dwell in the tents of wickedness. For a day in Thy courts is better than a thousand.

There is the throne of David;
And there, from care released,
The shout of them that triumph,
The song of them that feast.
And they, who with their Leader,
Have conquered in the fight,
Forever and forever
Are clad in robes of white.

O sweet and blessed country,

Take my life, and let it be Consecrated, Lord, to Thee; Take my hands, and let them move At the impulse of Thy love.

Take my feet, and let them be Swift and beautiful for Thee: Take my voice, and let me sing Always, only, for my King.

Take my lips, and let them be Filled with messages from Thee; Take my silver and my gold. Not a mite would I withhold.

Warhurst

Take my moments and my days. Let them flow in ceaseless praise: Take my intellect, and use Every power as Thou shalt choose.

Take my will and make it Thine, It shall be no longer mine: Take my heart, it is Thine own. It shall be Thy royal throne.

Take my love, my Lord, I pour At Thy feet its treasure store; Take myself, and I will be Ever, only, all for Thee.

Sought peace and rest:
Now Thee alone I seek;
Give what is best;
This all my prayer shall be,
More love, O Christ, to Theel
More love to Theel

Then shall my latest breath
Whisper Thy praise;
This be the parting cry
My heart shall raise,
This still its prayer shall be,

Processional Hymn 142

Part II

Sullivan

Hymns 162, 404, 334.

Offertory Anthem

There is a green hill far away,
Without a city wall,
Where the dear Lord was crucified,
Who died to save us all.

We may not know, we cannot tell,
What pains He had to bear,
But we believe it was for us
He hung and suffered there.

He died that we might be forgiv'n,
He died to make us good,
That we might go at last to heav'n,
Saved by His precious blood

There was no other good enough
To pay the price of sin,
He only could unlock the gate
Of heaven, and let us in.

Oh, dearly, dearly has He loved! And we must love Him too, And trust in His redeeming blood, And try His works to do.

Ravanello Resurrexit!

This interesting composition depicts the resurrection of Christ and sunrise on Easter morning. The repeated trumpet call rhythmically sounding the salutation: "Christ is Risen, He is Risen, indeed," reminds us that it was as common for the people of Latin countries to greet each other with these words on Easter morning as it is for us to use the familiar Christmas greeting on Christmas day.

Every Easter, in California, the townspeople at dawn ascend the heights of Mt. Rubidoux, where an impressive service is held. This number, by a well-known Pittsburgh organist, pictures daybreak, the town bell joyously ringing, the procession of the people and concludes with the triumphant Choral: "Ye Watchers and Ye Holy Ones."

Who is like unto Thee, O Lord, among the gods? Who is like unto Thee, glorious in holiness, fearful in praises, doing wonders?

The same stone which the builders refused is become the headstone in the corner.

Offertory Anthem

The Lord is my Shepherd: I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: He leadeth me beside the still waters; He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in The paths of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of The shadow of death, I will fear no evil; For Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence Of mine enemies; Thou anointest my head with oil; My cup runneth over. Surely goodness and Mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; And I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

Gauntlett Mertory Anthem

Lord of our life, and God of our salvation, Star of our night, and hope of every nation, Hear and receive Thy Church's supplication, Lord God Almighty.

See round Thine Ark the hungry billows curling! See how Thy foes their banners are unfurling! Lord, while their darts envenomed they are hurling, Thou canst preserve us.

Lord, Thou canst help when earthly armor faileth; Lord, Thou canst save when deadly sin assaileth; Lord, o'er Thy Church nor death nor hell prevaileth, Grant us Thy peace, Lord!

Grant us Thy help till backward they are driven; Grant them Thy truth, that they may be forgiven; Grant peace on earth, and after we have striven, Peace in Thy heaven. Amen.

Offertory Anthem

The King of love my Shepherd is, Whose goodness faileth never; I nothing lack if I am His, And He is mine forever.

Where streams of living water flow My ransomed soul He leadeth, And, where the verdant pastures grow, With food celestial feedeth.

Perverse and foolish oft I strayed, But yet in love He sought me, And on His shoulder gently laid, And home, rejoicing, brought me, Shelley

In death's dark vale I fear no ill
With Thee, dear Lord, beside me;
Thy rod and staff my comfort still,
Thy cross before to guide me.

Thou spread'st a table in my sight; Thy unction grace bestoweth; And oh, what transport of delight From Thy pure chalice floweth!

And so through all the length of days
Thy goodness faileth never;
Good Shepherd, may I sing Thy praise
Within Thy house forever. Amen.

The publication of this leaflet is omitted during the Summer.

Phillips Brooks

was born in Boston, December 13, 1835. He was a graduate of Harvard University in 1855, and the Virginia Theological Seminary in 1859. In that same year, he was made a deacon, and was ordained a priest in 1860.

Phillips Brooks' first parish in Philadelphia was the Church of the Advent, where he was Rector from 1859 to 1861. In 1862 he became Rector of Church of the Holy Trinity, where he remained until 1869. He then went to Trinity Church in Boston, continuing his outstanding work there until 1891.

On October 14, 1891, he was consecrated Bishop of Massachusetts. After a brief but great Episcopate, he died in Boston, January 23, 1893.

United War Chest

Once again, we have the opportunity of contributing to a united campaign, thus assuming our part of the responsibility for our various charitable enterprises. Because we are all so familiar with the work that has been accomplished for the common good by the concerted efforts of our people, it is not necessary to list the various participants. But we do know that by pooling our energy and money, much can be done for the hospitals, institutions and charitable organizations which would be impossible through individual effort.

And now the campaign has been extended to include the various activities for Service men and women and their families. This is a very worth-while part of the campaign, but does not curtail the work of the original program.

It's our job! So let us all do our utmost, and give to the limit of our ability. YOU, TOO, CAN FIGHT—BY GIVING!!
